Vice-President Freshman Class, 1; Legislative Council, 4; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, 4; Annual Staff, 4; Latin Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Education Club; French Club, 4; Bridge Club.

As a freshman, Laura "came into her own," and her popularity has not decreased during her college career. Not only has she braved Dr. Bondurant's classical course, but has snatched many moments to keep the grass from taking "Lovers' Lane."

VIRGINIA SUMMERS ARRINGTON

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Marionettes, 3, 4; French Club, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club, 2, 3; Newcomb, 1, 2; Bridge Club.

*"Alas, what mortal will be so unwise,

"Gaily the troubadour touched his guitar."

Few men have the diligence and persistence of Barnes, and if this same diligence is continued in his profession, his reward is certain. We wish for him the best.

KATHRYN LEE BARRY

Water Valley

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Katie Lee left us at the end of her Freshman year and wandered in other "climes" for a while. She's back with us again, however, and with her dry wit, and friendliness, has made friends anew.

MARY LOU BASS

Hattiesburg

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Marionettes, 2; M. W. C., '22; Greek Club.

Woman's College gave us a good student and loyal friend in Mary Lou. She is jolly and likable, and those who can claim her friendship are fortunate.

WILLIS CARL BEASLEY

Lamar

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Phi Sigma; Chaplain; Masonic Club;
Greek Club; Education Club.

This jovial preacher is known far and wide over North Mississippi as a fine sport and an enthusiastic minister. Phi Sigma will lose much of its grandeur when his booming voice is quieted within its halls.

RUTH BROWN

C. A., 2; Greek Club, 3; Education Club.

ROLEY ERASTUS CLEMENTS

Red Bay, Ala.

BACHELOR OF ARTS

BACHELOR OF ARTS

M. S. C. W., 1; French Club, 2; Latin Club, 3; Education Club, 4; Taylor Medal in English, 2; Student Assistant in English, 4.

Gladys is an ever-present proof that one can live happy and yet never be noisy, for she is soft of voice, sweet of disposition, modest and brilliant in scholastic work.

HUBERT ELLIOT COX

Houston

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Greek Club, 3; Education Club, 4; Historian Senior, B. A. Class, 4.

Hubert's pleasing personality and jolly good fellowship have made him a host of friends who regret to see him depart from his Alma Mater.

JOHN AMA CRAWFORD, Σ Υ, Α Φ Ε

West Point

BACHELOR OF ARTS

A man of sterling qualities and exceptional abilities, coupled with the determination to stand by his convictions. He has a record of attendance at the coop, which would, if transferred to the class room, be a delight to any of his professors.

NOLA DENTON

Delay

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Education Club, 2, 3, 4; Greek Club, 2; French Club, 3; Legislative Council, 3.

Nola is gifted with many talents, but especially will we remember her for her star basketball-playing during her four years with us. However, she has the ability to put over whatever she undertakes.

URLYNE DODDS

Greenville

BACHELOR OF ARTS

M. S. C. W., 1; Secretary of Class, 2; Historian of Class, 3; Greek Club, 2; Education Club, 2, 4.

WILLIE WEBB DUNLAP

University

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Greek Club, 3; Education Club.

Willie Webb is one of our athletic heroines and general favorites. In life as on the basketball court she may be downed but never out.

PAUL ROGERS GOOE

Booneville

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Pre-Med Club; Cotillion Club; Education Club; Intramural Football; Intramural Basketball; Assistant in Geology; Associate Editor, "Mississippian"; Assistant Sports Editor "Mississippian"; Phi Sigma.

Paul is a gifted youngster whose genius is dimmed only by an abnormal predilection for slumber. However, few students have any more friends or have made a better scholastic record.

VELMA LANE HASTINGS

Clarksdale

BACHELOR OF ARTS

M. S. C. W., 1; Education Club, 2, 3; Greek Club, 3; Latin Club, 2, 3; French Club, 2, 3; Marionettes.

Velma has that enthusiasm which is proof against all disappointments, a sort of indomitable optimism. Her personality is further enriched by her vivacious interest in French.

PERCY HATHORN

Oxford

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

A good student, an athlete of no mean ability, and a jolly good fellow—that is Percy. He is "Little Happy" in both name and disposition.

GEORGE WILLIAM HEALY, JR., I Σ

Natchez

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Cotillion Club; Phi Sigma; Sports Editor, "Mississippian," 2; "Mississippian" Staff, 3; Associate Editor, "The Scream," 3; Editor-in-Chief, "The Scream," 4; Greek Club; Advance Manager, Ole Miss Musical Club, 3; The Forum, 3; Secretary, Iota Sigma, 3; Ole Miss Board of Control, 4; Undergraduate Manager, Intramural Athletics, 4; Treasurer, Iota Sigma, 4; President, Senior Class, 4.

"Leave it to George!"—an all-round man of merit in the fields of Journalism, Romance and Politics, often combining and reconciling the three with remarkable success. The scope of his activities is the most convincing evidence of his ability, and his honors the best gauge of his popularity.

KATHRYN HENDERSON

Shelby

BACHELOR OF ARTS

M. S. C. W., 1; Marionettes, 2, 3; Greek Club, 3; Basketball, 3; Secretary, Junior Class; Education Club.

Entrancing colors—graceful lines—a bit of fashion—a pleasing ensemble, Kathryn came to us from M. S. C. W. She is the sort of girl who reminds us of dollars, champagne and limousines.

ALFRED HUME HODGE

Vardaman

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Greek Club, 2, 3; Latin Club, 2, 3; Phi Sigma, 2, 3, 4; Censor, 4; President Education Club, 4.

Alfred is a conscientious student, possessed of ability without pretentiousness, and with talents in the same direction of his great namesake. We prophesy an equal success for him in the field of Education.

FILO AUGUSTUS HODGES

Toccopola

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Greek Club, 3; Education Club, 4.

He is short in stature but long in reason and likable qualities. Graduating in three years is only one of the scholastic feats which he has accomplished.

JAMES LELAND HOLLAND, Θ K N

Meridian

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Millsaps College, 1, 2; Phi Sigma, 3; George Hall Club; Cotillion Club, 3; Greek Club, 3.

Debating, formal or informal—oratory or “bull”—that’s Leland’s best bet. Having spent three years at Millsaps, he was promoted to Ole Miss, where he soon became a leader of his class.

SANFORD R. HUGHSTON, A Φ E

Ackerman

BACHELOR OF ARTS

“Mississippian” Staff, 1, 2; Assistant News Editor, 2, 3; Glee Club, 2, 3; Mississippian Board of Control, 3; Phi Sigma; Blackstone Club; Masonic Degree Team, 4; Education Club; Vice-President, 4.

Sanford may be justly termed the Bolshevik king of the graduating class. His unusual intellectual power, liberal education and keen perception make him one of the leading thinkers in the new school of collegiate thought. This famed toreador will be missed in the nightly meetings of the radical club.

PHILAN H. HUNTER, JR., Σ' Y

Macon

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Latin Club, 1, 2; French Club, 2, 3, 4; Cotillion Club, 1, 2, 3; Forum, 3, 4; Secretary, 3; Debating Council, 3; French Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Assistant Instructor, French, 3; Senior Editor, "Ole Miss"; Intramural Football and Track; Reporter, Scribblers.

*"Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man."*

Neither Beau Brummel nor a Rah! Rah! Boy—Phelan is the type of man whom we consider really collegiate. A sincere student and a popular one, never known to hurry, always dependable.

HELENA CORBETTE INGRAM, Σ I X

French Camp

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Latin Club, 4; Greek Club, 4; Education Club, 4; Belhaven, 1, 2, 3.

Just a slip of girl with a bit of devilry in the sparkle of her eye. Although she has been with us only one year, we have found in her the essentials of a good comrade.

EMMA GRACE JOHNSON

Oxford

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Greek Club, 3, 4; Education Club, 3, 4; M. S. C. W., 1, 2.

"Jonnie" couldn't stay away from the "ole home" town any longer, so after two years spent among "Mississippi's Sweetest Collection of Women," she returned to resume her work among these "Wooded Temple Hills." Variety is the spice of life and Emma Grace can tell you that this is the place to find a "New-Man."

SARA JUNKIN

Natchez

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Whitworth College, 1, 2; M. S. C. W., 3.

"What a striking looking girl!" newcomers say of Sara. Sincerity is the keynote of her personality. When Sara graduates, Ole Miss bids farewell to one of its most popular and talented students.

MATHILDE KILLINGSWORTH

Fayette

BACHELOR OF ARTS

M. S. C. W., 1; Y. W. C. A., 2, 3, 4; Vice-President, Student Government for Women, 4; Greek Club; Education Club; Legislative Council, 4.

Because she possesses more than the ordinary human's share of that quick sympathy, that listens to all, and helps in the very listening—do we predict that she will be a success in whatever she undertakes.

C. M. LAGRONE

Oxford

BACHELOR OF ARTS

RALPH LLEWELLYN LANDRUM

Kosciusko

BACHELOR OF ARTS

"Dirty Seven"; Hermaean, '20; Greek Club.

Persistence is Ralph's biggest help in putting his ability to work. Remaining out of school two years, he returned to lead the way to graduation and to Ward Hall.

"Work is Work, and must be done, Yet as I work I have my fun."

We wonder if it is the natural sweetness of Susie Mae that is responsible for her being a member of every Refreshment Committee on the campus.

DORIS LAMKIN LENOIR

McComb

BACHELOR OF ARTS

Greek Club, 1; Marionettes, 1, 2, 3; Education Club, 2, 3; "Mississippian" Staff, 2; Co-editor "M" Book, 2; Secretary, Y. W. C. A., 2; President, 3; Legislative Council, 3; Secretary, A. S. B., 3; Co-ed Editor, "Ole Miss," 3.

M.D.

Medical Club, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A.; Glee Club, 2, 3; Hermaean, 2, 3; Pre-Medical Club, 1, 2; Interdormitory Football Team, 4.

The song bird of the campus is graceful in all roles. Whether it be serenading, studying or spoofing, "Dyke" can qualify.

GEORGE FRANCIS HAND

Meridian

M.D.

Medical Club, 3, 4.

With a carefree abandon George has always been there with "the goods." 'Twas never said he'd not do his part, and surely he can not fail in the study of medicine.

EDWARD WARREN HOLMES

Winona

M.D.

Medical Club;; Masonic Club; Secretary-Treasurer, Class, 5.

Pride of Winona! "Shotgun's" weakness for Titian blondes has made him an authority on femininity, for he "learned about women from them."

HEBIE HINTON

Richton

M.D.

Masonic Club; Pharmacy and Medical Clubs; Freshman Football, 1.

Hebie will be missed next year. He is one of the most popular men in the medical school and a hard worker. We prophesy a great career for him.

ROBERT HARVEY JOHNSON, I Σ

Pittsboro

B.S., M.D.

Freshman Football, '21; Varsity Basketball, '24, '25, '26; "M" Club; Iota Sigma, '26; Gordon Hall Board of Control, '25; Vice-President Senior Class; Vice-President "M" Club; Captain Basketball, '26; Track Team, '24; Pre-Medical Club; Medical Club, '26; Ole Miss Board of Control.

From his quiet manner one would not suspect that this rangy lad has been a terror to opposing cages for four seasons. A brilliant athlete, a good student and a fine fellow, the Class of '26 is proud to claim him as her own.

JOE HOLLIS LITTLE

Finley, Tenn.

B.S., M.D.

Medical Club; DeMolay Club, '23, '25; Masonic Club, '25-'26; Interdormitory Football and Basketball; President Senior Medical Class.

"Red" is equipped with a brilliant mind and eagerness to work, a good disposition and a pleasing personality.

LOUIS MCNAIR MAGEE

Prentiss

B.S., M.D.

Miss. A. & M., 1; Medical Club, 3, 4.

Maggie's transfer from A. & M. shows in itself his ability to choose the right—even though he had once erred from the path of learning by mingling with the cowpunchers. He is a hard worker and is assured of all success in his chosen profession.

LEVIN FREELAND MAGRUDER

Starkville

M.D.

Ole Miss Board of Control; Art Editor "Scream," 4; "Mississippian" Staff, 4; Medical Club; B.S. Mississippi A. & M., '23.

Another former Aggie who has made good at Ole Miss in his profession with his talent for art and his attractive personality.

ROBERT BEATTY MCLEAN

Greenwood

B.S., M.D.

Hermæan, 1, 2; Parliamentarian, 2; Student Assistant in Biology, 2; Y. M. C. A. Committee, 2; Cotillion Club, 1, 2, 3; Assistant in Physiology, 3, 4; Medical Club, 3, 4.

Bob is the type of fellow that we must know in order to appreciate fully. He possesses an especially admirable quality—the will power to stick to what he considers the right, regardless of public opinion.

DANIEL GEORGE MELVIN

Shuqulak

B.S., M.D.

Medical Club, 3, 4; Historian, 4; Gordon Hall Board of Control.

"Hi" has the distinction of being the tallest man that has ever traveled the campus at Ole Miss. He is known from the greenest Freshman to the most intelligent Senior. With his personality and intelligence he is certain to become a great doctor.

TEMPEL MONTIE MOORE

Brookhaven

M. D.

Medical Club, 3, 4.

Whether Tempel works or plays he does it with whole-hearted vim. He was a timid boy during his first four or five years with us; but now, during his Senior year he is considered the "Sheik" of the class.

CLIFTON TATE MORRIS

Baton Rouge, La.

M.D.

B.A., L. S. U., 4; Medical Club, 5; President, 6; Cotillion Club, 5; Diagnostician, George Hall Clinic.

Morris has made the Medical Club a good president and he will make some city a wonderful surgeon. We will miss him next year and it will be difficult to fill his place.

WILLIAM WALTON NOBLES

Marks

M.D.

A. & M. College, 1, 2; Medical Club, 3, 4; Obstretician, George Hall Clinic.

"To err is human," so Bill redeemed himself by leaving A. & M. to study medicine at Ole Miss. If jovial manner, ambition and personality count, Bill is surely on his road to success.

JOSEPH JOHN NOTO

Baton Rouge, La.

M.D.

L. S. U., 1, 2; Medical Club, 3, 4; George Hall Clinic, Gynecologist.

Noto is one of the most popular boys in the medical school. He likes his work and great things are expected from him.

THOMAS PURSER, JR.

McComb

B.S., M.D.

President Junior Medical Class, 3; Assistant In Anatomy, 4; Secretary Cotillion Club, 4; Medical Club; Neurologist, George Hall Clinic, 4.

Everyone speaks well of Tommy. If he only succeeds in life as he has at Ole Miss, the Medical World will surely hear of "Doc" Purser.

EDWIN CLYDE RAMER

Corinth

B.S., M.D.

Masonic Club, 4; Medical Club, 2, 3, 4; Cotillion Club, 1, 2.

Girls, you haven't a chance with this "Sheik." He is already happily married and working hard to make a success for the lucky lady. We'll miss him next year.

SHERRILL JEFFERSON SEVIER,

AK E, I N

Tallah, La.

B.S., M.D.

Publications Board of Control, 4; Ole Miss Board of Control; Business Staff, "Mississippian"; Exchange Editor, "Scream," 4; Medical Club, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer, Junior Medical Class.

Besides being the most likable man in the Medical School, "Brisco" is one of the steadiest. He didn't do much at L. S. U., but he certainly made use of his time here.

FRANK ALLEN STUART, JR., KA

Jackson

M.D.

B.A., Millsaps; Cotillion Club; Vice-President Medical Club, 4; George Hall Clinic (Orthopedic Surgeon).

In Stuart, Millsaps' loss has been our gain. He is a prince of a fellow and a good student. Who knows, but that in years to come, Mayo Brothers may welcome this young surgeon.

WILSON HUDSON TURNER

Water Valley

B.S., M.D.

Band, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 2, 3; President, Pre-Medical Class, 2; Secretary-Treasurer, Band, 3; Student Assistant in Biology, 2; Hermaean, 2; Taylor Medal in Chemistry, 3; Medical Club, 3, 4; Oto-Laryngologist (George Hall Clinic), 3, 4; Executive Council, 2.

Hudson did not have far to come from the neighboring town of Water Valley to the Ole Miss campus, and he has made an exceptionally good record while with us. After two more years in Medical School he'll be ready for the world and we're sure that it will extend to him a hearty welcome.

ALVYN W. WHITE

Pensacola, Fla.

M.D.

University of Virginia, 1, 2; Cotillion Club, 3; Dance Committee, 3; Secretary, Junior Medical Class, 3; Interdormitory Football; Assistant in Anatomy, Medical Club, 3, 4; Anatomist, George Hall Clinic.

"God heals, the doctor takes the fee."

"Venus" has helped to maintain the Ole Miss reputation of having representatives from all the states, for Alvyn came to Oxford from Pensacola with the intention of settling down to work.

WILLIAM THOMAS WILKINS

Olive Branch

B.S., M.D.

Millsaps College, 1; Medical Club, 3, 4.

Billie's motto has evidently been, "What's worth doing is worth doing well," for he has certainly done well while here. His congenial nature has carried him far on the road of friendship and although he has spent many a serious moment in the classroom and on the campus, his merry laugh will be remembered long after he has left these halls.

MEYER ZELTZER

Rochester, N. Y.

M.D.

University of Missouri, 1; Medical Club, 3, 4; G. U. Specialist (George Hall Clinic).

"Bromo" hails from the Kodak City; who knows but that he himself will be fitting lenses. With his friendly disposition and strong determination, he is certain to succeed in any specialty he chooses.

WILLIAM ERWIN HAMILL

Sturgis

GRADUATE IN PHARMACY

Hermaean, 1, 2; Pharmacy Club, 1, 2.

Hamill, exponent of the perpetual grin, possesses more than a pleasing personality. He's one of the best students Doc Faser has had in his department, and has the additional honor of being graduated with the famous "Hungry" Guy.

J. SISCO LUTER

Tylertown

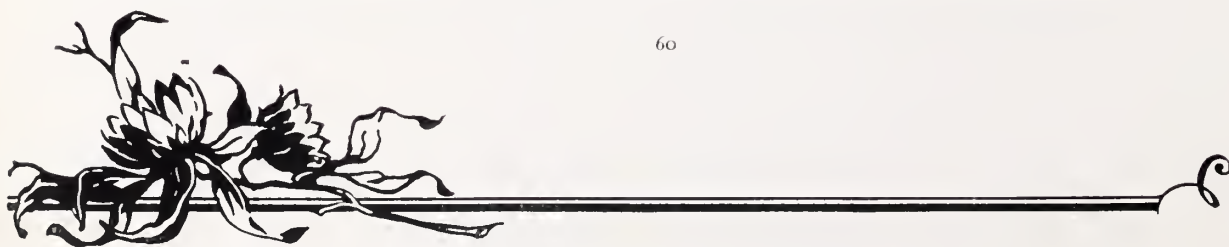

GRADUATE IN PHARMACY

Likable! That's Luter all over. Pill rolling has come naturally with this lad, and he should soon be a master in the profession.

STARK YOUNG

Honoring

Stark Young, author, essayist, dramatist, critic, native Mississippian and alumnus of Ole Miss, who holds a distinctive position in the world of letters today. His essays and criticisms are recognized as authoritative in the realm of the theatre.

"The Blind Man at the Window," "Guenevere," "Madretta and Other Plays," "Three Fountains," "Flower of the Drama," "Colonnade," "The Saint," and "Glamour" entitle him to the peerage of illustrious Mississippians.

We Appreciate—

Mrs. E. D. Beanland, whose unselfish devotion to the promotion of the Ole Miss Musical Club entitles her to our sincerest gratitude and praise.

Eric A. Dawson, originator and director of Le Petit Theatre Francais, is recognized as an authority upon modern French drama, besides being the editor of several text-books in French and English.

Martha Ida Wiseman. "Jack" is an ideal athletic director, who has succeeded in turning out year after year one of the best coached basketball teams in the South.

Dr. A. L. Bondurant, president of the American Classical Association, whose unwavering love for the higher and deeper learning of the classics endears him to us as one of our leading scholars.

Ella K. Somerville, whose keen appreciation of dramatic excellence has been the guiding hand in local dramatic efforts of the last few years, notably "You and I," "Mary the Third," "Candida."

R. Malcolm Guess, a true son of Mississippi, whose work in re-organizing the Y. M. C. A. after a lapse of several years and in other college activities, has meant much in the lives of many students in enjoying the fullness of college life.

ATHLETICS

"FOR YOU, OH VARSITY, WE HAVE NO FEAR!"

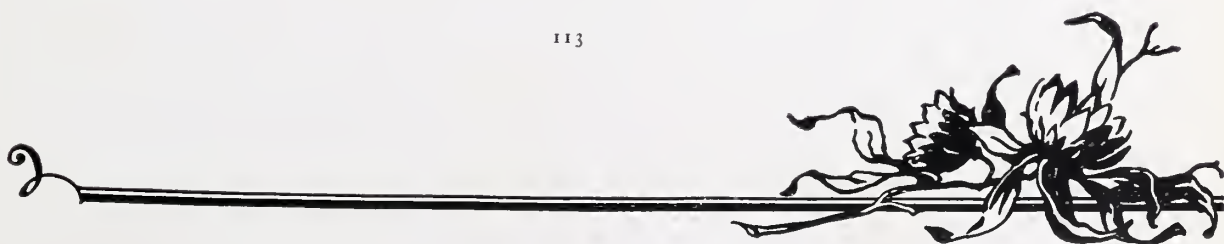

ATHLETIC SPONSORS.

CHARLEY ALLEN

A veteran of both the football and baseball field at Ole Miss, was the winner of the Norris Athletic Trophy for 1926, awarded annually to the best athlete. This is the highest honor that can be attained by a Red and Blue athlete. By consistent work through four years, Charley has merited this honor.

HOMER HAZEL
Director of Athletics

Ole Miss Athletic Heads

Homer Hazel, twice chosen on Walter Camp's All-American football eleven, came to Ole Miss from Rutgers to serve as Director of Athletics. The first year of the Hazel regime has been a banner period in Red and Blue athletics. Under Hazel's tutelage, the Mighty Mississippians bid fair to rise to even greater heights in Southern athletics during the coming year.

Hazel has not only served as Director of Athletics, but also as Head Coach of football and basketball. The new Mississippi mentor was ably assisted in football by Dave Bender, a former teammate. Coach Kenneth Vinsel performed the basic work in preparing future Red and Blue stars by tutoring first year teams in football and basketball. Vinsel also served as Head Track Coach. Pete Shields joined the Hazel forces in early spring to again direct the destinies of Ole Miss in baseball. Miss Martha Ida Wiseman, Director of Athletics for Women, again coached a successful co-ed basketball team.

Season's Resume

A new regime, with Homer Hazel in command, made its debut at the University of Mississippi in the fall of 1925. With it came a new brand of football, a more diversified attack, a defense that could not be solved. And success was the reward for the initial efforts of Hazel and Bender to raise Ole Miss from the ruck. Ole Miss—the Mighty Mississippians—again came into the limelight and the '25 season was the most successful since she was considered a leader in Southern gridiron circles.

Starting for the first time under Coach Hazel, Ole Miss rolled 53 points to the Arkansas Aggies' 0 in the season's opener on the campus. Then the Mississippians rambled over to Austin, where they were blanked 25 to 0 by a hot sun and a strong bunch of Texas Longhorns. The Texans were held scoreless in the first half by the Hazelites.

Against Tulane in the third game of the year, Ole Miss did something no other Southern Conference team was able to do in the season. She scored a touchdown against the Greenies, but lost, 26 to 7. Over-confidence hurt the Red and Blue and the Union University game, which Solly Cohen won 7-6. The state's classic again went to the Mississippi Aggies. This time by a 6-0 score, the touchdown being the result of a pass in the final period, after three quarters of the stubbornest kind of fighting had been scoreless.

A loss that would have been a victory if Mississippi could have pushed the ball over from the two-yard line, where she carried it twice, was the Vanderbilt game—the Commodores getting a 7-0 decision. In this contest the Mississippians surprised the whole South, as football followers were expecting a Vandy walk-over. One week later, Sewanee's Tigers were well prepared for Ole Miss and won by the majority of a goal after touchdown, 10-9.

The Choctaws of Mississippi College caught the men of Hazel on an off-day and escaped with a 19 to 7 licking. In the homecoming feature, Ole Miss, led by Allen, Cohen and Martin, ran over the Southwestern Lynx at a 31 to 0 tune.

A crippled eleven faced the Millsaps Majors on Turkey Day. With Johnny Davis starring in the sub-role, the Red and Blue concluded a glorious season by trouncing the Majors 21 to 0. The game was a fitting close to the most successful football season Ole Miss has had in the past decade.

"THE KICKOFF"

Captain John Mustin

Halfback

As a field leader, "Bat" filled the shoes of captaincy by using good judgment at all stages of the game. As a player, he was the most versatile on the squad—playing halfback, end and quarterback with equal ability. Mustin had the honor of being the only Southern player to score a touchdown against the Tulane Greenies.

Captain-Elect Webster Burke

Center

The 1926 captain is a natural leader and is expected to do his stuff as pilot of Mississippi's second grid entry under Homer Hazel. Burke was the "thunderbolt" of the famous Ole Miss line. From Texas to Vanderbilt, he tore opposing lines to shreds and always passed the ball to the backs in true fashion. Alert, aggressive, consistent—these qualities made Web one of the most feared snappers in the South. We predict All-Southern honors for him next season.

Quarterback

Charley has been the mainstay of Red and Blue elevens for three years. Many gains of other backs were due to the beautiful interference furnished by the big Mississippian. His "Million Dollar" toe was always resorted to when other methods of advancing the ball had failed and rarely did he miss booting the oval through the bars.

OLE MISS IN TEXAS

A. H. Applewhite

End

This big blond has proved an important part of the line that struck terror into the hearts of every team opposed. As an end, "Apple" has not a peer in the Southland. On the defense, he is like an express train. After being shifted from tackle to end, Applewhite proved himself to be a terminal of rare ability and All-Southern is the least we expect of him during the next two years.

Lacey Biles

Halfback

Lacey is one of the fleetest backs that ever wore the cleated shoe for Ole Miss. And it can also be said that he possesses a large supply of football nerve. Playing under adverse conditions throughout the season because of a bad knee, Biles never stopped in his end running specials. A fractured shoulder denied him the opportunity to repeat his record run against Millsaps.

Solly Cohen

Fullback

All agree that Cohen is one of the greatest backs ever produced in Mississippi. Vandy said he would shake the walls of Rome; Sewanee said the rocks of Gibraltar would tumble from its hold at the rushes of the great Cohen. Solly is one of the best defensive fullbacks in Dixie and his plunging is even greater. Without a doubt, "Stonewall" Cohen is the best bet Mississippi has had in years for an All-Southern selection.

Dick Cook

Halfback

Dick brought his weight and speed from the hills of Tippah to help make Ole Miss a football team. Though playing his first varsity ball, as a broken field runner he looked good for years of service and miles of yardage. On the offense, he is a constant threat and on the defense he is 170 pounds of concentrated power.

GIBBONS OF SEWANEE IS STOPPED BY SALLOUM

Bob Davis

Tackle

One of Mississippi's strong "silent" men of the gridiron. Such a man is Bob Davis, but his strength speaks for him when he is at tackle opening holes in the line big enough for a wagon, or on the defensive covering his territory like an all-timer of everywhere. "Booger" has another year and we know from past performances he will play the role of a star to perfection.

Van Martin

Halfback

This fast, hard-hitting halfback from the state capital is earning a reputation in the South as a man to be feared. Selected by leading sport writers as an all-state back, and standing well up in conference scores, Van's football career still has not reached its greatest height, as he is coming back next season to show opponents how football should be played.

T. J. Prince

Guard

"Tubby" Prince was one of the most reliable players of the famous line that Dave Bender developed at Mississippi. He did not confine his efforts to opposing linemen, but was also a menace to enemy backs. Prince possessed the same fighting qualities as his side-partner, Burke. The "Shuqulak terror" is expected to continue his good work next season.

Ed Reid

Quarterback

Wonderful head work and generalship, combined with unusual ability at passing, has made Reid an important factor in the Hazel machine. Just to show what he could do in the way of broken field running, he stepped out with a 55-yard return of the initial kick-off against Vandy. Injuries kept him out of the game the latter part of the season.

"THE GOAL"

Mitchell Salloum

Tackle

The return of Salloum to Ole Miss was good news to all followers of the Red and Blue. The tackle work of "Slocum" was even greater than the work he did on the '23 team. The enemy was always vexed when the big tackle entered the game and few plays occurred but what he figured. Salloum was an unanimous All-State selection.

V. K. Smith

Guard

V. K. was the outstanding guard in Mississippi football. His powerful drive swept opposing linemen off of their feet. Sport writers were unanimous in their choice for Smith for All-State. Much is expected of the big blond in the two years he has left at Ole Miss.

Bob Thompson

Guard

Bob played for Ole Miss in ye olden days. After developing two crack high school elevens, he returned to his Alma Mater and when Homer Hazel came to Mississippi he decided to again try his hand on the grid. Thompson was one of the most consistent workers on the squad and played regularly throughout the season. He handled all opponents without sustaining a mark of injury.

John Windham

End

The "Great Stone Face" was one of the deadliest tacklers of Ole Miss and never failed to play havoc in opposing backfields. Johnny's work is a good example of what can be accomplished by consistent work. It is hoped he will take advantage of his remaining year of eligibility and return to offer his services to the Hazelites of 1926.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Basketball, 1926

THE basketball team that represented Ole Miss during the 1925-26 season was probably the best that ever represented the Red and Blue in the cage sport. Captain Bob Johnson, who closed his collegiate basketball career, played steadily throughout the season and led a team that was the admiration of all Dixie. He took his place with the outstanding players of the South when he ranked third among the high scorers. Still more fame came to Mississippi when "Potts" Johnson, ex-captain and forward, was chosen on every All-Southern five at the Conference tournament. Using wonderful floor work and an uncanny eye, "Potts" won admiration from every side. "He is ever the greatest basketball machine I ever saw and is nothing short of quick poisoning to the opposition," said an Atlanta writer about the Ole Miss flash. The accurate scoring man that kept Ole Miss in the winning column was "Shep" Traxler, who led the Southern Conference scoring during the regular season.

"Cooter" Cutrer was largely responsible for the progress of the Ole Miss team. Opponent's low scores are tributes to the ability of Cutrer to keep the ball from the opposition. Cutrer's running mate, Captain-elect "Rosy" Bryson, was the fifth of the "Five Horsemen." The leader of next year's team never failed to play a beautiful running game. The popular wrecking crew composed of "Slim" Lee, Terry, Winter, Burke and Brinson always turned in a good performance when given the opportunity. Only the greatness of the "Five Horsemen," prevented Coach Hazel from throwing these men against the opposition regularly. The results of the season tell of the success that Captain Johnson and his men enjoyed.

Some of the features of the season were:

"Shep" Traxler broke individual scoring records by ringing 30 points against the Tulane Greenies.

Bob Johnson was third among the high scorers of the Southern Conference tournament with 34 points to his credit.

Coach Homer Hazel used four teams in defeating Southwestern 54-14.

Ole Miss was the only team that tripled its score on an opponent in the Conference tournament, defeating Sewanee 50-16.

Earl "Potts" Johnson was chosen as a forward on the All-Southern basketball team.

TRACK SQUAD

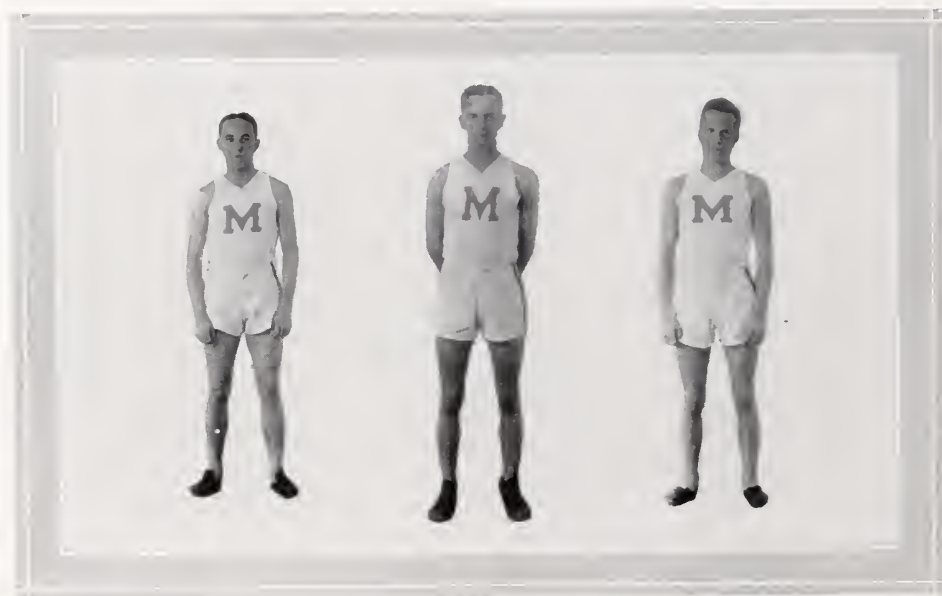

CAPTAIN WARE

RACK, in its second year as a major inter-collegiate sport at Ole Miss, attracted great interest in 1925. Coach Kenneth Vinzel had large squads working in both track and field departments. Several of the tracksters turned in splendid performances during the season and the entire squad gave the appearance of being the "makings" of track supremacy at Mississippi.

Hopes are high for track success at Ole Miss because of the wonderful showing made by the freshman track squad during 1925. Middlebrooks, Lilly, McCharen, Barrett, Killingsworth, Smith and Cohen are all likely cinder path and field performers of the highest degree. The first four composed a relay team that took second place in the Southern Conference Freshman relay meet at Atlanta. In the Pentathlon contest staged by Coach Vinzel, "Tite" Lilly nosed ahead of Middlebrooks to win the silver loving cup.

Ole Miss lost the first dual meet of the season in New Orleans, when Tulane University took nine out of fourteen first places to win from the Red and Blue by a 72-40 score. Ware and Scott were the best performers for Mississippi. In a thrilling finishing plunge, Ware won the 220-yard dash over Killeen, the Greenie flash, in a race, newspaper reporters declared, to be one of the prettiest ever staged in the Crescent City. Maurice Scott, distance man, took first in the two mile and second in the mile event. Crain and Gober won the high jump and shot put respectively.

THE FINISH

The Southern Champions from Mississippi A. & M. were too much for the inexperienced University team and the Red and Blue men were forced to take the funnel end of an  $86\frac{1}{2}$  to  $25\frac{1}{2}$  score.

The men of Vinsel met the teams of Mississippi College and Millsaps in a triangular meet in Clinton. At this stage of the season, the Ole Miss team had rounded into its best form. Showing equal ability in track and field events, the University emerged victorious over her state rivals by running up a total of 60 points. Mississippi College ranked second with 52, while the Millsaps total was 19. Captain-elect Ware was again the Ole Miss star.

Sollie Crain and Oscar Gober upheld the Red and Blue at the Southern Conference meet in Chattanooga by placing in the high jump and shot put.

1925 Tennis

ALLEN THOMPSON

With the construction of new courts, tennis came into its own at Ole Miss during the spring of 1925. The Red and Blue racqueteers showed increased spirit and try-outs for team selections were marked by hotly contested games. Allen Thompson and Art Hoff survived the competition. These two carried the hopes of Ole Miss in both the singles and doubles in the state championship.

The Mississippi State Tennis Tournament was conducted on the local campus during the first week of May. For two days the racket handlers of Mississippi College, Millsaps, A. & M. and Ole Miss waxed the ball over the net in their efforts to sustain the scorers elimination. The final count showed Ole Miss in possession of the singles championship and honors in the doubles being controlled by Millsaps.

Thompson and Hoff displayed by far the best form in the singles. Both of these men came through the semi-finals with victories and so teammate met teammate in the finals for Mississippi honors. The "Fightin' Yankee" went down before the clever strokes of his comrade in this match and to Thompson went the state singles title. The Harris-West combination of Millsaps reigned supreme in the doubles competition and the spoils of these matches were carried back to the Major camp.

Prospects at Ole Miss for 1926 are indeed rosy. Because of unusually keen rivalry, the Red and Blue will more than likely be represented by a four man team. Great things are expected of the '26 net men.

COACH WISEMAN

CAPTAIN GATHINGS

Co-Ed Basketball

EDDIE GATHINGS

Captain

Much of the success of the Ole Misses during the past three years is due to this inspiring leader of Coach Wiseman's sextette. Clever defensive work made Eddie's services indispensable at guard.

NOLA DENTON

Accuracy in tossing baskets and a steady nerve made Nola's presence essential in securing perfect team play. She will be greatly missed when the '26 call is given.

LOTTIE VERNON WHITE

Lottie Vernon took to the court last fall with the determination of adding the art of handling a basketball to her accomplishments. She developed into a capable reserve in her initial efforts.

NELLIE HATHORN

Playing her first year of college basketball, Nellie did not find an equal in all-round ability. This steady player played every position in a capable fashion and should be a tower of strength to future Red and Blue sextettes.

Co-Ed Basketball

BESSIE POWELL

Though small in stature, this diminutive forward never failed to baffle opposing teams with her deceptive tosses. The speedy coop flash covered the court like lightning and carried off scoring honors for the season.

WILLIE WEBB DUNLAP

Good plays came fast and regular from the hands of Willie Webb. She was a continuous threat at running center and fed the ball to the forwards with rare ability.

LAURA MAY BAIRD

Mrs. Baird, although a newcomer, played like a veteran as runningmate of Captain Gathings. Opposing forwards found her a source of much worry.

ELLEN SAMUELS

Coach Wiseman had a dependable reserve in the person of Ellen, who had the ability of getting the tip-off over all opponents.

MAUDE BROWN

Manager

"Hey-hey" had the distinction of doubly earning her letter, winning honors both as a manager and a player. Always a favorite among Red and Blue followers, Maude fought her way into the ranks of the starters.

Freshman Football, 1925

Ole Miss has won fame for her first year teams. The Freshman football team of 1925 was no exception. Four of the strongest teams ever faced by a Red and Blue eleven were met and conquered. In piling up 106 points to their opponents' 12, Coach Vinsel's eleven possessed some gridsters of sterling ability, of whom varsity success is predicted.

The '29 men made their debut before Red and Blue fans by giving the Mississippi Heights eleven a 26 to 0 drubbing. The Frosh scored early and took things easy thereafter.

Led by "Tadpole" Smith, the Freshmen entertained South Mississippi fans in their second game by decisively trouncing the State Teachers College 36 to 6 in Hattiesburg.

While the varsity was throwing a scare into the Vandy camp, the youngsters were further demonstrating their prowess in Jackson, Tennessee, by defeating the first year team of Union University, 18 to 6.

The cadets from Tupelo Military Institute fell before the Freshmen on Homecoming Day by a 26 to 0 score, "Reckless" Batten leading the assault. Once more an Ole Miss first year eleven had gone through the season undefeated.

Intramural Athletics

R. L. SULLIVAN
Director of Intramurals

Three years ago Coach R. L. Sullivan, then director of intercollegiate athletics, saw the need of an intramural sport system affording opportunity for participation to every student in the University. Handicapped for time on account of other duties, he organized this system with the assistance of undergraduates, having great success from the start.

In 1925, with the intramural system growing by leaps and bounds, this department was combined with the department of physical education, and Coach Sullivan placed in charge as Director of Intramural Athletics and Professor of Physical Training.

GEORGE HEALY
Manager of Intramurals

Under the intramural system opportunity for active participation in sports has been afforded every student of Ole Miss, and practically all have taken advantage of the privilege. Football, basketball, track and tennis series have attracted unusual interest, and soccer, baseball and other sports are being added to the intramural schedule.

That Coach Sullivan's department is meeting with great success is evinced by action of faculty members and outsiders in giving it deserved commendation. Everybody at the university, from Chancellor Hume down to Blind Jim, is a friend of the intramural system and of the department of physical education.

Both departments are good, because both are getting results.

Credit for work done in the department of physical training is allowed by the university, and this department is a separate and distinct department of Ole Miss. All first year students are required to do work in physical training, with this credit being offered as an elective to all upperclassmen.

The Athletic Managers

The new system of selecting athletic managers has been marked by spirited competition and increased efficiency. The system calls for a managerial staff composed of one senior, two juniors, three sophomores and four freshmen. Elimination, determined by the team vote, executive ability, personality and scholarship, constitutes the plan for selecting the senior manager, who is awarded the coveted "M" for his services.

To the Greeks

N 1912, Social Fraternities were banished from the University of Mississippi by state law. Not until 1926, after an absence of fifteen years, have students of this institution enjoyed the privileges and advantages of belonging to these organizations. After one of the most dramatic contests ever waged in legislative halls, the State Legislature restored fraternities to the school in the spring of 1926.

This action came after this book was composed; therefore, it remains for our successor to complete the story of their restoration. We are unable to include a section of fraternities in this volume, although it has completely changed the life upon our campus in this relatively short time.

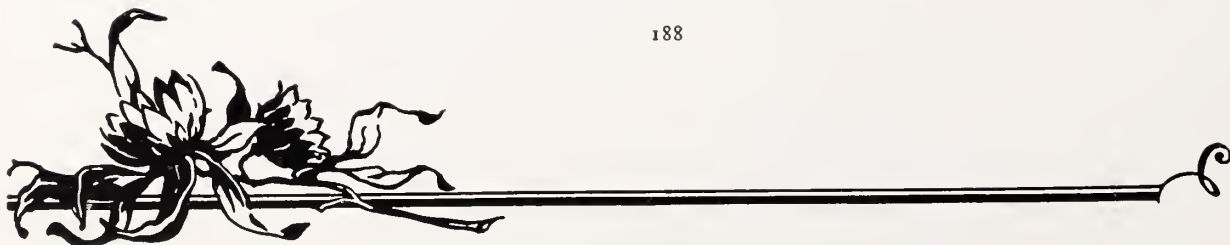

The passage of this bill was greeted with a great deal of enthusiasm by all students. Students have been most active in the organization of various groups with the purpose of reviving chapters that were formerly here, and some others that were not. All realize that the eyes of the state are upon them—that fraternities are on trial at Ole Miss. May we wish them well.

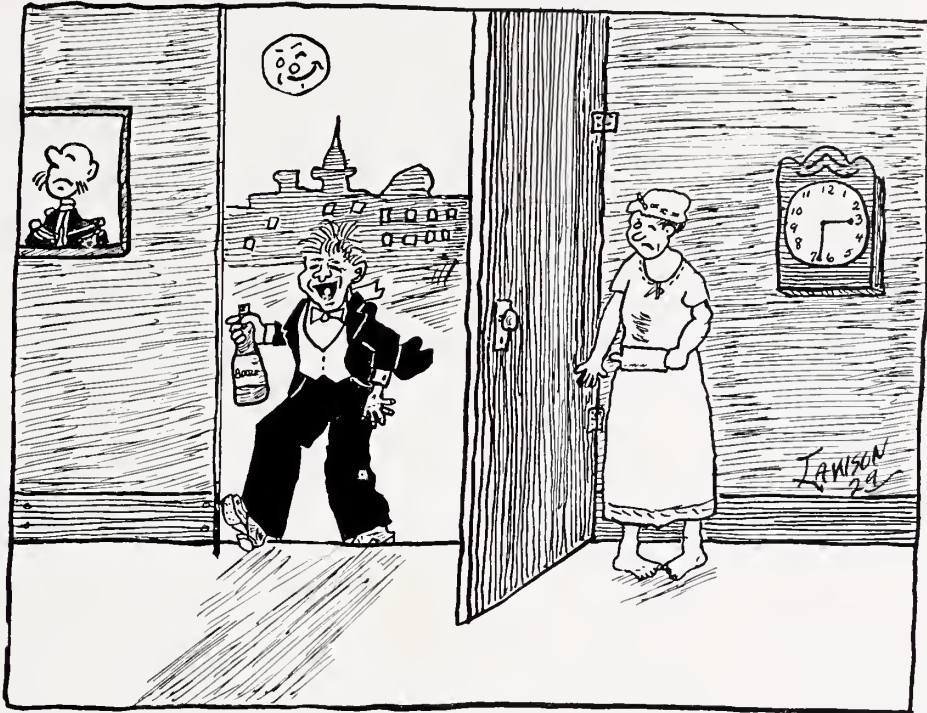

The first chapters revived this year were Eta Chapter of Sigma Chi, and Tau Chapter of Chi Omega, both initiated April 1, 1926. Among the fraternities expecting to return are:

SIGMA CHI	KAPPA ALPHA	BETA THETA PI
DELTA TAU DELTA	DELTA PSI	PI KAPPA ALPHA
KAPPA SIGMA	PHI DELTA THETA	SIGMA NU
SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON	PHI KAPPA PSI	ALPHA TAU OMEGA

A Leaf From An Ed's Telephone Book

Florence Godfrey. 0000 dumb—nice for a bright-lighted parlor date. Not a necker.
 Sara Stevens. 101 Hickory—Head like it. Pretty and interesting. You are interested in wondering whether she ever quit talking or ever said anything.
 Mary Oberschmidt—Wonderful figure. Thinks a Paris Apache is a plaster Indian.
 Va. Arrington. 200 Hemlock—Ought to have a cup of it. Modest and retiring.
 Eula Wren Day—I told her once to come out of the fog. She comes back with "What fog?" She walked home.
 Hilah Mackie—Enthusiastic kind. Talks in superlatives. I shall yield to my strong passion some day and—choke her.
 Mary Katherine Jackson—Dangerous. Thinks a kiss is a promise. Never commit myself on paper.
 Loraine Teat—Big sister type. My cauliflower ear dates from my attempt to mug her.
 Virginia McGuire—Gentle voice. Likes a dark bench. The miners of '49 had nothing on her in her gold digging operations.
 Margaret Alford—I learned about women from her. Will never have another date with her, but she's nice to remember. Old North State Cigarettes. Dizzy lingerie.

SATIRE

COLLEGE HUMOR," indeed, to call this last department of "Ole Miss" a satire. As though we could be satirical while we choke back the crowding emotions which stir us as we complete the pages of this greatest College Annual of the Year. Conceited? If it could only have been what we would have had it be—Satire, indeed. What travesty! Dean Milden dancing the Charleston, or Bryan England "spiking" the faculty tea, could hardly be greater sacrilege against propriety. The editor himself must have been woozy whenever he permitted the thing.

But was it really as bad as that? Perhaps the Ole Miss Staff saw farther than you think. For after all, has not college been a series of disillusionments to us all? A fitting anti-climax for the Senior in all his exaltation as he steps forth into the sickening reality of a sordid world which has seen countless generations before him emerge with the same intent to conquer it, but which still remains unconquered and unwelcoming. After the few years necessary to erase the stamp of "College" from his make-up, who will say that the Graduate of 1926 may not again turn to this book and add a long "Amen" to these comments which, though founded upon the truth, are printed in levity and without bitterness?

University

As we turn the pages, the old familiar buildings greet us with all their structural phases enhanced by nature's artistry and the keen eye of the cameraman to make them appear "never what they are but ever as we would that they were," surrounded by dream-like landscapes, beloved spots of legend and tradition. But why be unfair? Should not this glimpse be here included? Is there nothing in this of the interest of tradition?

And those faces that smiled or frowned, as the humor dictated, across the expanse of desk that added awe to their professorial dignity, where are they? Perhaps should Ye Editors of future years employ tactics here illustrated a gallery of smiles radiating intelligent satisfaction might be secured to grace their pages. But alas, we despaired, the attempt was vain.

THE AGE OF INNOCENCE

Notes From a Girl's Dope Sheet

George Butler. Always has a startled, simple expression. When anyone comes into the room, he looks as if I had just kissed him.

Sugar Campbell. A weather expert. From his continual harping on it, I think he must be a human barometer.

Bonney Cole. His physical, virile nature positively terrifies me. Some day he will crush one of my ribs in one of his passionate embraces.

Vivian Dawson. Another male brute. To hear him tell it, he has a girl in every port.

Van Dyke Hagaman. He sings so tenderly, with so much emotion, that he breaks down and cries sometimes. He swears beautifully, though.

S. A. Hall. He once broke his knees trying to bow to himself. Has corns on his hands from handing Stanton bouquets.

A. C. Kidd. Sweet and dumb. The kind you like to cuddle, but hasn't quite found out what it's all about yet.

Frank Leftwich. Always acts as if he regretted asking me for a date. Once I put my arms around his neck and the darn fool never stopped running till he got home.

Jimmie Lott. I hate these damn one-woman men. Last night at the show I said, "Don't you hate these two-gun pictures?" He comes back dreamily, "Yes, I like her best in the lavender sport dress."

Russell Miller. One of these boring men with ideas. He is always planning plays, feature-books, etc., until he entirely forgets that I like to neck.

Seniors

WE look at these pictures over which Laura and Phelan labored so diligently, we wonder if these are really the same individuals whom we met every day upon the Campus. How much preparation of toilet and coiffure must have been involved, how much of the photographer's art must have been spent in making these portraits from the uninspiring subjects who present their everyday physiognomies to the familiar Campus! With forgiving thoughts we consider those who are about to be graduated now, with wonder at that fallacious tradition, which causes them to command our respect for nine whole months. A Senior—Well, what of it? What makes a Senior what he is? What makes him a demigod, an object of veneration, a figure to which we point with pride? Well, what does? We laugh at Freshmen, admonish Sophomores and smile tolerantly at Juniors. Why then should we not adopt some similar attitude toward these Seniors? Of course, to one not impregnated with these traditions they are quite as laughable as Freshmen, as liable to admonishment as Sophomores, and hardly more to be tolerated than Juniors. In four years most of them have learned nothing except how to look and act like inmates of a sanitarium for the insane. They have accomplished little beyond the acquisition of a diploma and several rather collegiate ideas; perhaps they have acquired nothing beyond a jazzy wardrobe and a wet line, probably that "school girl complexion." They are always proud to have their boyish or girlish deeds set forth in print beside their pictures for all the world to see and to admire. But what does even this mean? Look at the pictures and the legends with them. If the legend is a long one—well—. In two years most of them would not trade a pair of honestly calloused hands for all the societies to which anyone was ever elected at Ole Miss. Seniors they are indeed! But Seniors among whom?

Then come the Juniors, and all the others, but we linger too long, as has become a habit with most of us; let us pass on, for their day is not yet.

Features

So these are Features!

Yesterday? The first Chancellor—from yesterdays and yesteryears—his face spells Pedagogue and carries in its lines all the attributes the term implies. This Lyceum, but the backbone of that aged pile of ours that rambles over all the hilltop of our campus. But let us give thanks that it's 1926. These Co-eds wonder if they "necked" like those today. It must have been a long distance arrangement of some sort judging from their "surroundings," but perhaps they, too, had a mean technique. And then Today—echoes of the "stern Genevans' creed;" again let us give thanks that it's 1926. The C. & P. Building, nice shady picture of the place—and the Co-eds—trim ankles, too.

Turning another page, we encounter the Campus Celebrities. We chuckle! A

GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN MALE

Florenz Zeigfeld annually offers the American public his "Follies," Glorifying the American Maid. We offer these pages of collegiate types, Glorifying the American Male.

Because they were selected by a canvass of the Ole Miss Co-eds, and are therefore the "Ladies' Choice," we call them—GOD'S GIFTS TO WOMEN

School of Political Engineering

FACULTY

GEORGE HEALY	BOB THOMPSON	OTHO MAGEE	M. S. McDUGAL
SOL KAUFMAN	S. A. HALL	MARY OBERSCHMIDT	O. L. BERRY

Political courses are offered by these men of well-proved pre-eminence in the political world. These men have studied after Doheny, Falls, Ponzi, John Law, Aaron Burr, and other historical masters.

I. A course in the art of swinging A. S. B. elections. The fine points of ballot-box stuffing, demagogue oratory, the dividing of opposing votes, and other useful tricks of the trade. Mr. Stribling himself.

II. The Graft. Otho Magee.

III. The Technique of Class Elections. Includes those of each school of the University with details in the psychology of each. Mr. Healy.

IV. The Psychology of the Freshman Voter. How to induce him to advocate your candidate and mould his feeble brain in any shape thou listest. Mr. Kaufman.

V. Bootlicking the Professor. This course will enable you to get through school with no work except a little bull administered in the right proportions. A very delicate subject. Dean Corliss, assisted by Miss V. Arrington.

VI. A Political Study of the Woman. Divided into two semesters.

1. Devoted to the art of feeding a line. The mastery of any girl at the Coop is promised after six lessons.

2. Capturing the woman's vote. This is opposed to 1. in that it is purely materialistic. The suffragettes' mind becomes as an open book to the student of this profound subject.

—Offered by Mr. Johnnie Davis.

Graduate work is offered in the politics of School Publications, and the Secretaryship of Gordon Hall Boarding Club.

Campus Celebrity is—well, he's a—now, he—well, he's just a Campus Celebrity. It is a trigonometrical fact that the quantity of brass decorations which can be worn upon the vest varies directly with the amount of that alloy which is in the individual's makeup. We know some of them who possess enough brass to make a bed. But these decorations are not without their significance. Oh, no! They represent a lot of hard work, or a lot of talent, or exceptional ability, or something. They are the pride of the campus, these boys and girls—Ole Miss's finest. Of course, most of them have been working so busily at their trade of being Campus Celebrities that they have missed the true significance of College Life, and their opinion is that the University exists in order that some time in their careers they may be called big men. So here we have them all! The Athlete, the Editor, the Presidents, the Managers, etc., etc., and the Politician. Most, or all of them almost, the Politician. What price glory? If the ringing cheers and blind adoration of a thousand adolescents be their glory, why then, glory is cheap enough. Hail the Campus Celebrities!

And ye "Ole Misses," fair Maids of Mississippi, the village knockouts, come hence from Beeville, Swamproot, Three Corners, Hardrock, and Sullivan's Hollow, with the greater part of Pa's pot neatly encased in the form of laces and lingerie. All this is designed solely for the purpose of knocking a string of half-cocked goofs for a nine-month row of jellybean matinee drags, with additional seances by moonlight and otherwise in the vicinity of Ward and Ricks Halls, within the proximity at least of the outer circle. The ulterior motive in all this it seems is none other than to leave this venerable institution still gasping from the perfectly breathtaking way in which she led the lists, and graduated with extinction (to try the line and wardrobe somewhere else) with the degree of B.C. (Bachelor of Campusography.) She has tested to her complete satisfaction the prowess of that line to land both fish and suckers, and has truly helped to make this "Plastic Age" youthfully roseate and collegiately humorous. But they are nice girls.

Athletes

Let us turn on—and we come to the athletes. Athletics is unquestionably the chief function of every modern university. It is the department that must be upheld—these heroes must have their publicity; they thrive upon it. Here we have all the boys, with their hair all slicked back. The football and baseball players all have a new shave and haircut. All new pictures of these men; they are the fearless gladiators who perform for thousands, with no thought of anything save the glory of the old school. They are the fellows whose bruises are nursed, whose muscles are massaged.—Great stuff to be an athlete. Ask one of them, if you do not value your personal safety much. What he could tell you would make your eyes stand on ends. But say, how would you like to enter Ole Miss with a great reputation as a high school athlete

OLE MISS

THE COMIC STRIP

THE "OLE MISS" CHARLESTON

Not since Gilda Grey first shook her "shimmy" in a Broadway cabaret and set the world vibrating to the tantalizing rhythm thereof has any dance so completely captivated the American people as the Charleston dance. You have never really danced until you have learned the intricate steps of the Charleston. Ole Miss dancers show you how.

(a reputation to sustain), and as soon as you had starred on the Freshman team have your every movement watched over? How would you like to listen to a bunch of lily-livered lounge lizards cheer you to fight, and hear their enthusiastic praise when you win, and their equally enthusiastic condemnation when you lose? Oh, it's a great life to be an athlete. (What would College be without the strains of the Victors' Yell and the Roar of the Locomotive?)

Organizations

An organization is that which devours a student's time and money, but lets him get the bull off his chest and puts his picture in the annual. First we hit the A. S. B. This is the grandest and most august body on the campus. Its meetings are characterized by absence of party heat and by wise measures. When by accord it chooses its most worthy member as its head, it backs his policies, honors him and pays him in the coin of praise. The Student Government for Women has so many important duties and so much influence that it is universally envied. The Scribblers—the male intelligentsia of Ole Miss. Its members take sandwiches and smokes once a month and learn the latest about Pat and Mike. Here we have Chi Delta Phi, the Ricks Hall Sisterhood, organized in the Latin Quarter of the Coop. The Apes. They bear out the new evolutionary theory that monkeys are descended from man.

The members of Pi Kappa Phi stick out their chest because years ago an old gink melted his brass bedstead down and made little discs to pin on their noble bosoms. The Mississippian, weakly journal of college life. Its jokes have killed this year 102 students from laughter and its news scoops weekly electrify the world. Its contributors are all nationally famed as poets, literary vagabonds and expert portrayals of—the burlesque. Now we arrive at something: The Scream. The startling ascendancy of The Scream into international fame has left Ole Miss agape. Its modest editor has distinguished the magazine by his collections of scintillating wit and the erratic policies of the editorial page.

Last in the list of Ole Miss's glorious publications comes the Annual. The staff sweats and fumes and boasts all year over their wonderful work of art, the enduring memorial of the college year, and when it is assisted off the traditionally groaning press and weakly enters the arena of college life, what have we? Here are the same old mugs that have disgusted us all year, the same old cartoons we have seen for years, the same local beauties and the same false and foolish eulogies on the characters of our "dear" departing classmates, with the same attempt at something funny in the back. It has a pretty cover, though, and looks nice on our shelves. Oh, my gosh!—the literary societies! Here come the freshmen to follow, a little better and faster, of course, the

Our All-American Line

The heaviest, liveliest, and most aggressive team in the history of Ole Miss. They are equally good on the defensive, fence, offensive, or Coop Bench.

Mary Lou Bass—R. E. Size 14 shoe. Her work on drives, especially gravel ones, cannot be surpassed. She has played the right end and downed a big man in her football day.

Elizabeth Vardaman—R. T. Gum capacity, 2 packages. Her classical tackle is history.

Carrye Lee Ashford—Guard. An all-round linesman. She plays an up-to-date clothesline. Carrye Lee has some line.

Anna Hagaman—Center. Size 16 collar. All opposing players fear her brutal tactics. Her famous stiff upper lip has bowled over many a man.

Laura Alexander—Guard. A hard-boiled player. This linesman just will break training and drink. She has been known to gallop off the field in the middle of a game to get her afternoon tea.

Rosa Tate—L. T. Wears Walk-over shoes and Paris garters. Employs the most brutal and bullying tactics. Feared by every player of the flat-iron.

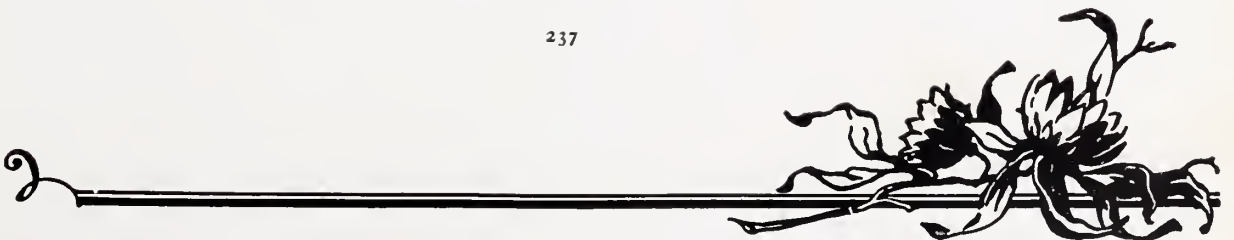

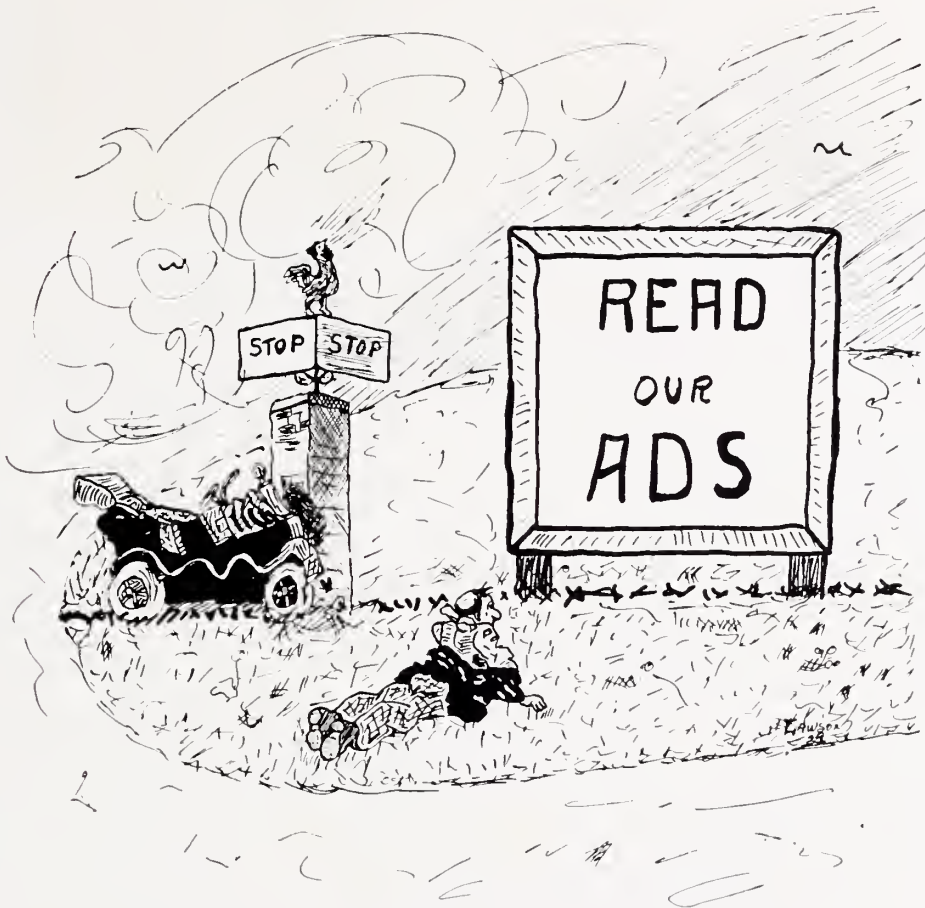

Rachel Zeller—Wrong end. Likes Brown's Mule and Modern Novels. Became a terror after her first set of false teeth. She literally chews 'em up.

Velma Hastings—She has knocked more men cold in her day than Red Grange. In some plays she has been seen to kick out viciously in all directions.

Sara Stevens—Known as the talking fullback. Never known to say anything, she talks the opposing man to sleep and then simply follows her words to the goal.

Vera Godbold—Half-gone. An advocate of the cosmetic system. Her eyes are all she needs to make a complete shut-out.

Alice Brown—Quarter. Capacity, two shows and a dinner. Noted for her ability to dig in. She overcame the handicap she had in not having any brains and made a success last season.

steps of the demagogue who formed the melodramatic phrase, "Give me, etc." They learn in these noble organizations to sway the multitude toward right and democracy and to argue with wisdom and dignity whether or not Nebuchadnezzar had a mole under his left ear. They are afflicted by the disease Ideas. The next uplifting organizations we have are suffering from a similarly demoralizing sickness, Ideals. The Y. M.'s and the Y. W.'s tear out our souls (which no one else can find), examine them impartially, melt them down, and pour them into uniform moulds. The whole student body works with the Y, its young face shining with a benevolent, eager light. The Musical Club yearly uplifts the rustics of Mississippi with divine and ethereal strains of music. They represent the cultured, the talented side of our lovely college life. It numbers among its members some thirty future Grand Opera Stars.

Ah! We have arrived at the histrionic stars, yes? The Marionettes present performances from the humble Chapel stage that would produce a disturbance in the French Opera stormy enough to bring down the antique chandelier. They are profound students of the drama, consumate actors, temperamental artists, and seekers after publicity. The French Players are the same stuff with the added supremacy of talking faster and handling their hands with the facility of graceful traffic cops. Their performances are, needless to say, well understood by us, and their, Eh bien, oo la la la!

Here we have the Bridge Club: "Do you know what so and so did the other night and m-m-m-s-s-s-scandal—four hearts—Rudolph Valentino—gossip—I double—p-s-s—How do you like that awful dress of watchumacallits and m-m—etc."—Bah! The Engineers, future builders of bridges, mappers of empires, hardy and heroic pioneers, and customers for Wrigley. Hats off to the Engineers. Now we have the most exclusive and aristocratic organizations on the campus. The Latin, Greek, Education, and Pharmacy Clubs, so forth ad infinitum. These inspirational clubs set the students' hearts afire with zeal and love for their subjects. In fact, this inspiration to kindle other objects with the same subjects is so great that we saw a boy rush home from a meeting and start a fire in his grate with Allen's First Year of Greek.

The photographic treatment of this annual as a whole, and particularly the pictorial and decorative effects of the views, the composition of the groups and natural simplicity of the individual portraits, was accomplished only after careful study and deep thought of the requirements of the "OLE MISS".

We believe it was worth our while. We are happy that the Staff shares our enthusiasm for the completed book.

Staffs who take pride in the Annual they publish will not fail to get our proposition.

GLIMPSES

Next we see a series of delightful little views of the moment in fragments of life on the campus. Here's Nobody with his girl (amusing, huh?) and romantic couples lying around under the noble oaks talking about the Charleston and the movies, and beautiful little sylvan scenes, bringing tears of wonderful memories to our eyes, and the snow pictures that have appeared in connection with Ole Miss since 1849 (there was none in '48), and other things of vast and vital interest to us. Painfully turning these pages we arrive at College Humor.

We run up against the Popularity Contest where we see the Most Everything. A photographic record of the tastes and fancies of the student body. It's a great honor to be the Most Something. Two years from now you'll probably be the Most Poor, or the Most Unknown. Then we run up on pages and pages of original, side-splitting, crushing, and roaring satire. Overwhelmed by such humor and sarcasm, the 1926 Ole Miss almost slips out of our hands when we see the positively best part of the book.

Allen Thompson. Easy to catch. Let him talk about Allen a little while, chuck him under the chin, and he's yours—for a week.

Bob Thompson. Oozing with apple-sauce. He fairly exudes it. Talks about the latest plays, poetry, and such rot. I wish he had 'em all rammed down his throat.

Hodge Thompson. Dreamy. Long, curly hair. Horn-rimmed glasses. Had me criticize a book on manners at the tea-table and on the grid-iron.

George Tomlinson. Poses as sophistication. The poor jackass can't even mug neatly and scientifically.

Rolph Ristad. (?)

Dees Stribling. Rants on about the blessings of the 18th amendment, but always drains my pocket-flask before 9 o'clock. Then he suddenly remembers that he is the hero of 1000 brave and perilous deeds and loudly declaims about them until he passes out on my shoulder.

Afterword

I sat at my office window
     Gazing down onto the street,
 The rain on the window pounded
     Like the trampling of many feet.
 The lights outside in the darkness
     Were surrounded by halos of mist,
 Like mirrors the rain-drenched pavement
     Shown back reflections of this.
 The typewriter by me was silent,
     Waste papers littered the floor—
 Reminders of tasks long finished—
     Labors that are no more.
 The scene of business and bustle
     That room in its time had been.
 Now the product lay finished before me,
     To our worries and labors—the end.
 Lightly I turned the pages
     Of that volume new-bound and pressed,
 Wondering if the things there written
     Could amuse and interest the rest.
 But I dared not hope so wildly,
     For the things that they will see
 Are only half vain efforts
     Of what we would have them be.
 For none will know the hours,
     And moments of labor, and days
 Of thought and hopes we put there
     When they lightly scoff or praise.
 But as you turn and return these pages,
     Won't you please remember this:
 It was not for ourselves that we did it,
     But for you, for you and Ole Miss.

R. H. M.
